work lies with the Deputy Sheriff
It was within the month that the Deputy Sheriff had his attention called to the existence of too much liquor in Kalihi, through the death of one of Judge Wilcox's men, and he began the search for the moonshiners. It was a half barrel, From one side of this there ran a copper pipe one inch in diameter. This was straight, and passed through a trough which was a half mile away from that in which the stills were finally found. But with the aid of Policemen Kaelikai and Ah On a constant watch was kept upon the continuous properties.
